Ladies' Fancy Blouse, No. 834.—There are many variations of the "Gibson Waist" this season, the essential feature being the deep plait which extends out over the sleeves and gives a broad effect to the shoulders.

This charming blouse is developed in turquoise blue Liberty satin. The foundation is a glove-fitted featherboned lining, which closes in the center-front.

The back of the waist is perfectly plain, with the exception of the deep plait, which tapers toward the waist and is machine stitched. A smooth adjustment is maintained under the arms. The same plait appears in front, but is only stitched down half way. ST LOUIS AERIE, NO. 41, F. O. E., meets every Thursday night and the first Sunday afternoon of each month at Havin's ffall, Sixth and Walnut streets, Visiting brethren wilcome. CONRAID KEMPF, W. P. John A. Gernez, W. FANCY

Are in Vogue.

32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch bust.

The closing is made with small black velvet buttons and buttonholes worked through the center box plait. The fronts are tucked in clusters of three at the neck and seven from the shoulder, all backward turning. They are stitched down some distance, and provide a becoming fullness over the bust, which forms a blouse at the wais. The narrow velvet belt fastens with a sliver buckle.

The bishop sleeves are shaped with inside scams only, fit the arms closely, and are gathered at the lower edge. The cuff is of unique shaping, deep at the front seam, and shallow in the back, where a point is fastened over on the upper side. It is machine stitched and trimmed with velvet buttons.

Taffets, peau de soie, satin, Lansdowne or albatross waists in this style are very pretty. They require no trimming, although some of the buttons which are used on these fancy blouses are really beautiful.

To make the blouse in the medium sizwill require two and one-half yards of thirty-six inch material. The pattern, No. 3394, is cut in sizes for a 32, 24, 35, 38 and 40-inch bust measure.

to-day in the Federal court here were sentenced to the United States Penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., for two years, and each was fined $5,000, on a charge of conspiring against the Government.

They constitute the leaders of what is known as the Snake gang of Indians, who have sought to resist the allotment of lands by the Dawes Commission in the Creek Nation, and prevent the settlement of affairs by the Government in the Indian Territory. by the Government in the Indian Tecritory.
Craxy Snake over a year ago started an uprising that made it necessary to call out troops from Fort Sill, and he and his followers were arrested last week for again inciting the Indians to violence.

KENTUCKY SENATE FAVORABLE.

Passed World's Fair Bill Carrying Appropriation of $100,000.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 26.-The State Sen-Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 28.—The State Senate to-day passed the bill providing for a Kentucky exhibit at the Louisana Purchase Exposition. The measure carries an appropriation of $100,000. The vote stood 22 to 18.

The bill as passed has only one amendment, that providing that counties, cities, towns and corporations may donate for the exhibit such amounts or exhibits as they may see fit.

exhibit such amounts or exhibits as they may see fit.

Senator Richardson offered an amendment to reduce the amount to $50,000. This was promptly voted down, as were other amendments tending to defeat the bill. The bill will be reported to the House to-morrow and it is hoped to have it advanced in that branch to its third reading ready for its passage by the middle of next week.

The friends of the measure are much encouraged and say that while a majority of the House committee was against the Tompkins bill, they hope to secure a favorable report on this bill and that a majority of the House members favor the passage of the Cox bill and it will become a law.
